

Tim and Colleen Stevenson
Missionaries to Uganda

Missions Focus:

- Under Global Missions, they are serving the church in the area of project development in Uganda, Rwanda, and Congo.
- They manage the TAPP (AIDS ministry) program.
- As they work with Kinderhilfswerk, they are expanding building programs, well drilling and sponsorship programs.
- Both are serving on the board of Heritage International School, an international school located in Kampala.

The Stevenson's began serving in Uganda as Short Assignment missionaries, initially working in building and educational development of a single institution. Since then, they have developed 70 Church of God schools in Uganda, as well as starting others in neighboring countries. They assist approximately 4,000 children in sponsorship programs, either within the schools or in personal networking through Children of Promise, Furaha in Canada, Kinderhilfswerk in Germany, or through Compassion International and Samaritan's Purse.

Tim and Colleen, both missionary kids, came to Africa as young children and have been part of the developing continent from the 50's and 60's respectively. Their four children, Tiffany, Natasha, Jesse, and Logan, continue as the 3rd generation of their family who have enjoyed the beautiful continent and hospitality of its people. Logan is the remaining child at home and is currently attending Heritage International School.

Birthdays:
Tim, June 7
Colleen, July 1
Logan, September 14

Anniversary: July 28, 1979
