

Chad and Diane Davenport
Missionaries to New Zealand

Missions Focus:

- Have served at Auckland International Church (AIC) since January 2001 as the youth and music pastor.
- Serving as lead pastor since 2005. After almost a year of planning and prayer, the church was re-launched in February 2007 as Westside Christian Fellowship.
- Engaging the local community in a variety of ways to strengthen Kiwi families and to re-present Christ to this post-Christian culture.

Chad's interest in ministry was first sparked by a mission's trip to Calcutta, India, during which he worked with Susanta Patra and Mother Theresa. From that time on, he felt a desire to teach overseas. Under the mentoring of Kurt and Lori Salierno, Chad's call to ministry was clarified. In 2001, Chad left his home church (Town Center Community) in Marietta, Georgia, and his job as a band director to assist a new church plant in Auckland, New Zealand.

Soon after he arrived in New Zealand, Chad met Diane at AIC. Diane had been studying at the University of Auckland and was introduced to the church by Nevelle Tan, her former pastor from the Church of God in Singapore. Born in the Netherlands to parents from Singapore, she moved many times with her family during her childhood until they finally settled in New Zealand. She completed her studies in film and acquired a job at Shine TV, the country's pioneer Christian television station. On January 15, 2005, Chad and Diane were married. Since that time, she has served in a number of capacities including worship leading, administration and creative arts.

Chad and Diane are currently working along side missionaries Doug and Danette Beisley.
