

David & Kathy Simpson
Missionaries to Bulgaria

Missions Focus:

- Serving as the first missionaries to Bulgaria from Church of God Ministries.
- Assisting the Bulgarian church in developing and implementing strategies for outreach and growth.
- Providing support and guidance to local pastors, and assisting with teaching and leadership development.
- Serving with the Three-Worlds team

Dave and Kathy (Rankin) Simpson of Warsaw, Indiana, have accepted a call to serve the church in Bulgaria through Church of God Ministries. As a young teenager, David Simpson spent three years in Egypt, where his parents were Church of God missionaries.

Kathy shares that “like Dave, my heart has been moved by the needs of people in far away places. We were able to travel to Eastern Europe in 1991 and 1992. Since then, I have been drawn to that part of the world. I’m excited about the opportunity to work alongside Bulgarian brothers and sisters in strengthening the church and sharing the love of Christ.”

Dave and Kathy met and married while at Anderson College (now University). After graduation, Dave worked as a program administrator for the developmentally disabled. After completing graduate courses in psychology, public affairs, and administration, he managed human resources and marketing as a bank vice president. In 2004, he completed a master’s degree in theological studies from Anderson University School of Theology.

Kathy’s interests led to a career in hospice and a master’s degree in social work from Indiana University. Dave and Kathy have two adult sons, Nathan and Ryan, who live in Indiana, and a foster daughter, Cate McGurn Caland, who lives in France.
