

Ken and Keli Oldham
Pastors to the Middle East

Mission Focus:

- To serve the Three-Worlds Team as it connects to Syria, Lebanon, Egypt, and the UK
- To befriend congregants and challenge them in their spiritual growth and to be present in their hours of need
- To gain an understanding of the gifting and needs of the church

Ken and Keli Oldham are joining the Three Worlds Team which is working toward raising up a new generation of leaders and creating inner-connectivity throughout Europe and the Middle East. The Oldham's are excellent pastors and are also gifted in creating international connections and mentoring emerging leaders. Beginning January, 2012, they will serve as pastors of a congregation in the Middle East as well as helping Three Worlds develop its strategy for reaching out to this region.

Ken was born in Anderson, Indiana to Bill and Lucy Oldham. His father met his mother on an Anderson College Tri-S trip to her native country of Guyana, South America. The family attended Church at the Crossing in Indianapolis before his father began pastoring churches in Indiana, Alabama, Louisiana, and West Virginia

Keli was born and raised in Detroit, Michigan. Her parents, Frank and Pat Camper, served in pastoral positions in Michigan and Ohio. Keli grew up with a tender heart toward urban ministry, originally planning to study social work.

Ken and Keli met and married as students at Anderson University; they both graduated in 1995. Since then the Oldham's have served at Scott Memorial Church of God in Tennessee; Riverchase Community Church in Alabama; and Sixth Avenue Church of God in Decatur, Alabama.

Please lift up Ken, Keli, and their children, Grace, Titus and Zeke, in prayer as they serve in an area of the world where security is a concern.
