

*Jon and Karen Lambert
Career Missionaries to Ecuador*

Missions Focus:

- Leadership development is essential because the Church of God in Ecuador is relatively new (1986).
- Directing the Ecuadorian church's Bible institute "Seminario S.E.T.E". This education program trains leaders and pastors. A newly built library and expanded dorm facilities are providing more opportunities for educational development.
- Karen serves as coordinator for the Ecuadorian "Children of Promise" program. More than seventy Ecuadorian children and their families receive food, schooling and medical assistance through this program
- Both Karen and Jon preach and teach weekly in the various Ecuadorian congregations and both serve on the National Council of the Church of God in Ecuador. They also host work camps from North America. Normally five work teams per year visit Ecuador, building churches, teaching seminars, training leaders, or bringing medical clinics. They hope the work camps provide a rich cultural exchange benefiting both visitors and nationals.

Jon and Karen Lambert have served as career missionaries in the country of Ecuador since 1997. Prior to missionary service the Lamberts pastored in the US for eighteen years serving congregations in Texas, Virginia and Ohio. Jon and Karen attended Mid-America Christian University when it was Gulf-Coast Bible College in Houston Texas. Jon graduated from GBC in 1979.

The Lamberts have two children. Their son Jon is living in the Indianapolis area. Their daughter Rachel and husband Darryl Englebrecht, are living in Vancouver, British Columbia.
