

Paul, Kattia, & Tabitha Jones Missionaries to Bolivia

Missions Focus:

- Serving alongside the national church through biblical and ministerial training of lay church leaders.
- Itinerant preaching and evangelism at weekend camp meetings, known as juntas that take place on the date of the churches' anniversaries.
- Kattia: Working with the women's groups, teaching conferences both locally and nationally. Supporting the youth in youth camps and conferences; and also ministering to children through puppets and other visual aids.

The son of Church of God pastors, Paul worked as a mechanic until he felt the clear call of God on his life to be a missionary. In 1992 he graduated from Moody Bible Institute in Chicago with a bachelor's degree in international ministries. For the following four years, he served as associate pastor at the Church of God in Odessa, Texas. Then he went as a special assignment missionary (SAM) to Bolivia.

On the way to Bolivia, Paul studied Spanish in Costa Rica, where he met Kattia. In December 1998, he returned to Costa Rica to marry Kattia and they returned to Bolivia to finish his three-year term. In 1999, Paul and Kattia returned to Texas, where Paul served once again as associate pastor in Odessa. Tabitha was born in May of 2002. In January of 2004, Paul, Kattia and Tabitha returned to Bolivia to serve as career missionaries of the Church of God.

Kattia was born and raised in Turrialba, Costa Rica, the youngest of six children. Her family converted to Christ when she was twelve years old. She received a degree in English from the University of Costa Rica. While working at a private school, she furthered her education by taking graduate-level courses in translation.
